OVER THE YEARS, I've used a number of Bible reading plans but inevitably there were aspects to each I found cumbersome or less than ideal. So, years ago, I combined my two favorite plans to leverage the benefits of each – the M'Cheyne and Navigator Bible reading plans – in order to create this one. The primary benefit of any plan is that you actually have a plan and you're not left wondering where to start on any given day. There is nothing that will help your Bible reading flourish like having a plan for progressively working through the entire Bible.

Here are the benefits of this plan:

- Read through the NT and Psalms twice and the OT once each year. Many plans get you through the NT once and the OT once over the year. The result, however, is that you end up reading much more OT than NT which causes some imbalance.
- Read four different parts of the Bible every day. Reading various parts of the Bible every day helps you see the themes that span the ark of the storyline, keeps your reading fresh and prevents you from getting discouraged if you're slogging your way through a single book (think: Leviticus).
- Multiple daily readings also allows you to get creative. You could read all four in one sitting, or read two in the morning and two in the evening, or read two devotionally and the remaining two with others. You could even turn the 12 month plan into a 24 month plan. The options are endless.
- Reading is planned for only 25 days of each month. This is a key benefit of this plan. We all know how easy it is to get behind and how difficult it is to catch up. With only 25 days of planned reading each month, you have five catch-up days or five days for more specific study.
- Months are numbered. Understandably, most reading plans begin in January. However, that creates the feeling that the only time to start a year-long reading plan is at the start of the year. What if I want to start in September? The months on this plan are numbered so you can start at the front of any month.

“Open our eyes that [we] may behold wondrous things out of your law.” (Ps 119:18)

Christ is all,
Pastor Adam Sinnett
