

Volunteer Description

BOOKSTORE TEAM

SUMMARY

Bookstore Volunteers are responsible for the unique discipleship task of assisting DCC attendees in finding and purchasing books to help them grow as followers of Jesus. They will do this before and after Sunday gatherings while also maintaining the orderly operation of the Bookstore.

COMMITMENT

- Serve every other Sunday – typically two Sunday gatherings per month (approximately 1 hour per gathering, totaling 2 hours monthly)
- Arrive at DCC gathering location 30 minutes before gathering on serving Sundays
- 6-month commitment to serve is strongly desired

QUALIFICATIONS

- Is prayerfully seeking after Jesus with a vibrant, living faith
- Is a member in good standing (regularly participating in community and serving, sacrificially giving)
- Loves to read and has read (or is working on reading) some of the Bookstore's titles
- Is willing to develop (or already has) a working knowledge of the authors and content of the other books

ESSENTIAL DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- Helping DCC attendees find books that meet their needs in the 20 to 30 minutes before and after Sunday gatherings
- Helping people purchase books using the Square POS
- Watering the plants on the bookshelf if needed (if the soil feels dry to the touch)
- Ensuring that the books are arranged neatly and stay that way throughout the services on Sunday
- Assist the ministry lead with arranging the books to highlight what is being preached on

EXPERIENCE

- No experience needed, training provided
